GREENVILLE REPUBLICANS

Hold Meeting in Union Hall and Arrange for Outdoor Rally.

A fair sized attendance of the republican voters of the Third district gathered in Union hall Tuesday evening. The meeting was called to order at 7:45 o'clock by Charles S. Fyfe, a member of the republican town committee, and he was chosen as chairman of the evening. The audience was addressed by Currie Gilmour, and Judge N. J. Ayling. There was a general discussion of the republican affairs relating to the presidential election among those present, and after a helpful hour the meeting came to a close about 9 o'clock.

COLCHESTER SYNAGOGUE CASE

Excluded Members Have Sold Building and Furnishings—Injunction Obtained by Opposing Party in the Congregation—Suit in Superior Court—Injured Italian Asks Heavy Damages of Thames River Paper Mill.

A schism in the synagogue of the Congregational Pische Tschwoh at Colchester brings the split in the synagogue into the superior court by papers just filed with Clerk Parsons by the sixteen plaintiffs in the case, who claim to be members in good and regular standing and are opposing the attempts of Samuel Gellert to take possession of the synagogue building and equipment, which was sold to him by fifteen members of the synagogue named as defendants in the case, who it is claimed were excluded from the congregation before the date of the sale to Gellert.

The plaintiffs in the case are Harry Groobert, L. Friedman, Hyman Buslowitz, Charles Levine, H. Mintz, Louis Grollman, M. Weinman, J. Levine, L. Silverman, A. Silverman, L. Greenberg, Samuel Stern, Abraham Elgart, I. Goldberg, Max Goldblatt and William Krupnik, and the defendants named with the purchaser, Samuel Gellert, all previous members of the congregation, are H. Cohen, B. Dember, Samuel Levine, Michael Levine, Samuel Gittlin, Elise Gittlin, Nathan Wefusor, C. D. Greenberg, Jake Kalanowicz, B. Horowitz, Aaron Felden, Leon Broder, L. Paltzer, J. Buklin, M. Siegal and Aaron Kantowitz.

The complaint alleges that the fifteen defendants have become excluded from the congregation through the operation of a by-law which provided that any of its members who should help to form or become affiliated with any other religious society or organization without the permission of the Congregational Pische Tschwoh should be ipso facto suspended.

It is charged that before September 10, 1911, the defendants became affiliated with another Jewish religious society, and that the synagogue excluded them by vote after due notice. On October 8, 1912, it is charged, the excluded members held a meeting at which they voted to take possession of the synagogue building and equipment, to Samuel Gellert for $500, giving a deed which has been recorded in the Colchester and records. The plaintiffs represent that the synagogue was excluded at a cost of about $2,100, and had in it religious books to the value of $1,000 and a pile of bricks on the land worth $75.

MAKING GOOD PROGRESS

DREDGING THAMES RIVER.

Work Can Be Completed in Three or Four Weeks More.

The dredging of the Thames river to restore the channel from Norwich to the Navy Yard is progressing successfully. It is expected that the work will be completed in three or four weeks.

The Parkard Dredging company of Providence has the contract. Two dredgers are being used. One started at Norwich and worked down the river and another started from Stoddard's wharf and worked up the river. The tugboat takes the dredges outside to dump. The restoring of the channel in this section of the river will greatly aid boats using this part of the Thames.

The dredging of Shaw's cove has taken longer than at first estimated. There has been a delay because of the difficulty in dredging at the draw. It is not long enough at the draw for the dredge, and the sea to be along, so the dredge has to dip its bucket and then move out to empty. This has to be done between tides, too, and this of course means a delay.

NO SUFFRAGAN NOW.

Bishop Announces Election Will Not Be Held Until Next Year.

In the last issue of the Connecticut Churchman Bishop Chauncey B. Brewster announces that no attempt will be made to elect a bishop suffragan for the Connecticut diocese until the annual convention next June. It will be remembered that Rev. J. Chauncey Linsley of Torrington was elected at the convention held in Hartford last June and that he later declined to accept. Bishop Brewster writes as follows:

"It does not seem to me wise at this time to call a special convention of the diocese. Until the annual convention the matter to be decided is whether the suffragan bishop, who has seemed to be needed for the proper doing of the work of the diocese. Meanwhile, in regard to the matter of visitations and the Episcopal clergy, I confidently trust I may, without asking, count upon the kind consideration of the clergy and people."

WILSON NIGHT.

Norwich Democratic Club Will Join the Country-Wide Movement Saturday Night.

By celebrating Saturday as Wilson night, in harmony with the demonstration plan for the whole country, the Norwich members of the party are to be in line with the national movement and the Norwich Democratic club has arranged for a rally in the town hall, which will be held at 8 o'clock.

Two speakers that have been secured are Gov. William Hodges Mann of Virginia and Stockton Axson of New York, who is a brother-in-law of Governor Wilson. Congressman Robert L. Henry of Texas may also be here. The rally will be preceded by a parade headed by Tubbs' band, and in the course of the evening an address direct from Governor Wilson to the voters will be read. A big turnout is looked for.

Drill Season Opening.

The drill season for the Fifth company, C. A. C., would open on Tuesday night at the armory, but on account of this being election night, orders have been received to begin the drills on Monday. Capt. W. G. Tarbox will have the company on the armory floor that night.

Were delightfully entertained by the New London sisters.

Harry, George and Miss Chassie Jewett, Providence street have gone to Manitoba, where they will reside with their father, Mr. Jewett.

Mrs. James P. Ganey of Rutland, Vt., is visiting at her home on North B street.

Rheumatism

Is a Constitutional Disease.

It manifests itself in local aches and pains, inflamed joints and similar troubles, but it cannot be cured by local applications.

It requires constitutional treatment, and the best is a course of the great blood purifying and tonic medicine Hood's Sarsaparilla, which corrects the acid condition of the blood and drives out the impurities. Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabs.

Crushed in Elevator Accident.

Suit claiming $20,000 damages from both the Climax company of Lowell and the Thames River Specialties company of Montville are brought in the superior court by papers filed with the clerk Tuesday. The plaintiff is Loretto Roma, an Italian of Montville, 18 years old, who was employed by the Climax company and was badly injured in an elevator accident at the mill at Montville on May 13, 1912. The Climax company is a lease of the Thames River Specialties company. Through his attorney, Charles W. Comstock, the plaintiff claims total and permanent disability, as both his legs were caught, torn, mangled and lacerated, when the elevator suddenly started up with Roma on it. He was thrown down and his legs caught between the elevator and the floor above. Negligence on the part of the company in providing proper safeguards about the elevator to protect workmen is charged by the plaintiff.

Two Divorce Suits.

Alleging desertion since August 1, 1908, Herbert Larkie of this city brings suit for divorce from Alice Larkie of New York. They were married August 3, 1902.

John C. Morgan, conservator for Samuel S. Morgan of this city, brings suit for the annulment of the marriage of Samuel Morgan to Jessie B. Cook of this city, which took place in New London, February 6, 1912. The marriage was secured, it is charged, through fraudulent representations of the defendant.

Claims Against Simonds' Estate.

Suit to collect a claim for $25,000 against the estate of John A. Simonds, of this city, which was made in the probate court by T. G. Stuart of Winchester, Ky., against C. D. Noyes, administrator of the Simonds estate. The claim has been allowed by the probate court in the settlement of the Simonds estate.

NO ROAD OVER

LYME ROCK ROUTE.

Public Utilities Commission Will Not Grant Company's Petition.

The public utilities commission at Hartford Tuesday decided to eliminate the Neck road in Lyme from the proposed route of the extension of the New London and East Lyme Street Railway company. The company had petitioned the pass through Lyme via Lyme street and around by the Old Lyme Inn. According to the decision of the commission, the road may be restricted to the state road to the bridge.

WAS OLDEST INHABITANT

OF FISHERS ISLAND.

Allison Sears, 85, Passed Away Saturday—Had Been Resident There Since 1880.

The death of Allison Sears, Saturday morning on Fishers Island removes from the island its oldest inhabitant. Mr. Sears was born in Haverstraw, Rockland county, N. Y., April 25, 1827, making him 85 years of age. Until Thursday he was in his usual health, and that day was busy around the house, clearing up the lawn and caring for his chickens. He was a bricklayer by trade and had worked at Haverstraw, Hockensack, N. J., and Keyport, N. J., at Greenport, L. I., and lastly at Fishers Island, to which he came in 1880. He was foreman at Hockensack and held important positions at other places. He enlisted in the 22d New Jersey volunteers, serving in Co. C, his term of enlistment being from Sept. 3, 1862, till June 25, 1865. His discharge papers show he served the full term of his enlistment.

Mr. Sears married Margaret Ann Birmingham at Haverstraw, Nov. 25, 1852. Their union was blessed with eight children, seven sons and one daughter, five sons living to maturity. One son, Will, the popular master for many years of the Munnatawket, died last April from Bright's disease. Four sons, Raymond, George, Emory and Lafayette, are now with their mother, Emory and Lafayette living on the island.

Mr. Sears in 1888 built the house in which he died, and the last years of his life were devoted to the care of his small farm of five or six acres.

He was an enthusiastic gardener and always had a fine garden. He harvested his own hay the past summer, doing all the mowing himself, mowing a half hour or so, then resting. Only two men now living on the island were here when Mr. Sears came in 1880—Christian Hansen and C. W. Hedge.

The funeral was held in Union chapel Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Burial will be at Maplewood cemetery in this city. Mr. Sears has one brother, Jacob Sears, also a brickmaker, living at Keyport, N. J. He is 75 years of age.

Will Pay Visit to Norwich.

LEGHORNS SURE WINNERS.

Storrs Contest Will End This Week—Low Scores at the Finish.

The total number of eggs laid during the Storrs contest of the International egg laying contest at Storrs was 692. This is 141 eggs less than the previous week's production. The pen that laid the largest number of eggs was a pen of white Wyandottes owned by W. R. Conder of De Witt, N. Y. This pen laid 21 eggs. A pen of rose comb Rhode Island Reds owned by E. S. Edgerton of West Willington, Ct., was second for the week with a score of 59 eggs. A pen of white Wyandottes owned by Beulah farm of Stony Creek, Ont., Can., laid 19. Next in line for the week was a pen of single comb buff Leghorns owned by George H. Schmitts of Chicago. This pen laid 15. The largest egg laid during the week weighed 19-100 of a pound. This was laid by a single comb Rhode Island Red owned by Bunker Hill poultry farm of Waquoit, Mass.

The following is a list of the leading pens as they stand to date, with the total number of eggs laid by each:

F. G. Yost of Sayre, Pa., single comb white Leghorns, 1055; Beulah farm, Stony Creek, Ont., white Wyandottes, 1053; Marwood poultry farm, Butler, Pa., single comb white Leghorns, 1031; Thomas Baron of Catforth Eng., single comb white Leghorns, 971; Cullencross farm, Scotch Columbia, N. Y., single comb white Leghorns, 970; Toms poultry farm, Toms River, N. J., single comb white Leghorns, 967; Frederick Pessley of Cheshire, Ct., single comb white Leghorns, 952; Susan Abbott of Parkersburg, Pa., single comb white Leghorns, 939; George H. Schmitts of Chicago, single comb buff Leghorns, 932; W. R. Conder of De Witt, N. Y., white Wyandottes, 926; Robert J. Walden of Middleburg, Md., barred Plymouth Rocks, 913; White Rose farm, Vineland, N. J., single comb white Leghorns, 918; Homer P. Deming of Robertsville, Ct., single comb Rhode Island Reds, 912.

The following is a list of the leading Connecticut pens as they stand to date, with the total number of eggs laid by each:

Frederick Pessley of Cheshire, single comb white Leghorns, 962; H. P. Deming of Robertsville, single comb Rhode Island Reds, 911; A. J. Clark of New Haven, barred Plymouth Rocks, 870; C. S. Steele of East Haven, rose comb Rhode Island Reds, 849; E. S. Edgerton of West Willington, rose comb Rhode Island Reds, 842; W. J. Tilley of Packerville, white Plymouth Rocks, 839; Burton Moore of Winsted, single comb white Leghorns, 832; Conyers farm, Greenwich, single comb white Leghorns, 810; Elm poultry yards, Hartford, single comb white Leghorns, 805.

The contest will end this week. It is not likely that Yost's white Leghorns will lose their lead.

NORWICH TOWN

Vegetables and Flowers Continue to Grow in the Open Air—F. C. Smith Injured While in Clevealand.

Local Mount Holyoke alumnae were grateful for the fine weather of Oct. 28 and 29 for the 75th anniversary of Founders' day. Twenty-five years ago June, when the daughters of Holyoke came back from the ends of the earth to celebrate its semi-centennial, day after day the rain fell in torrents. This time there was an examination of the weather records, and it was found that Oct. 28 and 29 had been pleasant for a long time back, so those days were fixed upon for the celebration.

Franklin Man Injured.

While visiting his son in Clevealand, O., W. C. Smith of Franklin, who has relatives here, met with an accident last week. As he was crossing the street he was struck by a trolley car and fractured several ribs and suffered other injuries. The accident occurred just as he was about to start for home.
